EDUCATIONAL SPEAKER

Dana LaMon

Speaker, Author, and 1992 World Champion of Public Speaking

Dana LaMon is an incredible speaker who shares a wealth of information with his audiences. His engaging and thought-provoking presentations help you, the listener, tap into your own brand of brilliance. A great storyteller, he weaves in personal journey and everyday common sense to make his presentations, workshops, and key notes memorable. In addition to being a Professional Speaker, 1992 World Champion of Public Speaking, and an Accredited Speaker, Dana is also an author.

His four books providing the reader with information, inspiration, and motivation are: The Soul's Mirror: Reflections on the Fullness of Life; The Excellence Book: 104 Principles for Living and Working; Master the Ceremonies: The Emcee's Handbook for Excellence; and Making the Moment Meaningful: Creating a Path to Purpose and Fulfillment.

Dana served as an Administrative Law Judge from 1981-2010. He is a graduate from the University of Southern California, where he studied law and a graduate from Yale University.
